

The Hideaway

(Taken from the Coliseum approach description.)

Park at the Alpine Club lot. Take the trail that starts opposite the maintenance shed and heads up Grotto Mountain. Drop into the drainage when the trail forks, then continue up the drainage. You will get cliffed-out half way up, but contour up left 20 meters or so and re-enter the creek bed by down climbing. Continue up a while until you get to the “Hideaway Crag” on your left. If you get to the choice of a slab on the right of the creek-bed or a chimney/boulder choke straight up then you’ve gone too far.

For the descent, it may be nicer to leave the creek-bed a few hundred meters downstream of the hideaway crag where some blue flagging tape leads up and left (east) out of the drainage. Grotto mountain descent trails (that crisscross all over) can then be followed down.
